

Idaho High School Rodeo Association
Conduct and Behavior Policy Agreement:

As the Idaho High School Rodeo Association you will be a representative of the Association and symbolic of its reputation, principles and interest to other students and adults in your local community. Because of the importance of your position and what your appearance and behavior say to others about you and the Association, it is imperative you understand the expectations and responsibilities that accompany your position. You will be expected to comply with the dress code and other requirements of the Association and behave in accordance with the standards provided in the Rules and Bylaws set by IHSRA.

The Rules and Bylaws provide that acts of insubordination, misconduct or acts, which are detrimental to the reputation, principles and interest of IHSRA, will subject a Member to discipline. Disciplinary action can include a variety of penalties – even removal of title.

Activities for which discipline has been, and will be imposed include (but are not limited to) any association with or use of alcohol or drugs, or immoral or lewd conduct. Regardless of the permissive laws of Idaho or the indulgence or permission of your parents or legal guardian, these activities will not be permitted while you are attending local or state Association events, meeting or functions or serving as a representative of Idaho in any way.

The IHSRA will investigate all alleged offenses and the incident will be reported to the Member's parent or guardian. A hearing pursuant to the Disciplinary Action or Disqualification provisions of the Rules and Bylaws will be scheduled at which the Member will have the opportunity to present a defense to the charges.

At the end of your year at State Queen, or upon the imposition of Disciplinary Action requiring relinquishment of the crown, or, suspension or expulsion from the Association, the crown and all other property of the IHSRA must be returned to the State within 7 days at the member's expense. Other items that belong to the State and are required to be returned with the crown, include, but are not limited to the IHSRA Queen Parade Banner, all other banners and the queen chaps.

During your year, you will be required to adhere to all NHSRA policies and procedures for travel, making appearances, attending official functions, state meetings, activities and any other State or local events. You will be expected to carry out all responsibilities as Queen and meet all requirements and expectations that are outlined to you during the annual Student Officer Orientation or that are outlined to you at any other time throughout the year by the governing boards, individuals or committees for the IHSRA.

As the Queen, you should be aware that posting photographs, comments or statements on any website such as Myspace, Facebook or any other website or internet page that associates them with the IHSRA and NHSRA is not allowed without the permission of the IHSRA. They should also be aware that any statement, comments or photographs posted that sheds a negative light on the IHSRA or is detrimental to the NHSRA, its mission or the sport of rodeo in any way could subject them to disciplinary action resulting in censure, probation, removal, suspension or expulsion. They should be aware, whether in or out of official capacity they are a representative and ambassador for the IHSRA, therefore, posting inappropriate, offensive or unsafe content on social media may be subject for review by the board and disciplinary action may be taken.
